

A wide-angle photograph of a beach scene. The foreground is a sandy beach. The middle ground shows gentle waves with white foam washing onto the shore. Several people are visible in the water, some holding surfboards. The background is a clear, light sky. The text 'lahinch!!!!' is overlaid in the center of the image.

lahinch!!!!

Costal
Regions of Ireland

Physical Features: Lakes, rivers, mountains, beaches etc.

lahinch is a sandy, crescent-shaped beach, by the resort town of Lahinch in Liscannor Bay on the north west coast of County Clare. The beach directly faces the Atlantic Ocean. Lahinch is most famous for surfing, as it has its very own surfing school.lahinch also has a golf club of its own

Amenities or facilities available

There are lots of pubs and shops open in Lahinch, such as..

Ice cream shops, pubs, restaurants, shops, surfing schools, golf clubs and much more. And also of course Lahinch beach!

Tourist attractions

Lahinch includes attractions Such as, cliffs of moher,lahinch beach,lahinch golf club,obrians tower and burren way.

Transport into and out of the area

(Maybe include a road map here)

Contrast to where I live: